b. Impressions. An officer or employee or member of the Agency should endeavor to pursue a course of conduct, which will not raise suspicion among the public that he is likely to be engaged in acts that are in violation of his trust.

c. Receipt or Benefit. No officer, employee, or member of the Agency shall use or attempt to use his official position to secure unwarranted privileges or exemptions for himself or others, including directly or indirectly soliciting, accepting or agreeing to accept any benefit from another person upon an agreement that his/her vote, opinion, judgment, action, decision or exercise of discretion as an Agency officer, employee or member will thereby be influenced. A donation to a person seeking public or party office or to a committee supporting the efforts of such person shall not be considered such a benefit hereunder.

d. Confidential Information. No officer or employee or member of the Agency shall disclose information which is lawfully confidential and acquired by him in the course of his official duties or use such information to further his personal interests.

e. Representation before the Agency. An officer, employee or member of the Agency shall not receive or enter into any agreement, express or implied, for compensation or benefit to himself or a relative, directly or indirectly, for services to be rendered in relation to any matter before the Agency.

h. Investments in conflict with official duties. (i) An officer, employee or member shall not invest or hold any investment directly or indirectly in any financial, business, commercial or other private endeavor or entity, which creates a conflict with his or her Agency duties; (ii) No officer or employee or member of the Agency shall engage in any transaction as representative or agent of the Agency with any business entity in which he has a direct or indirect financial interest that might reasonably tend to conflict with the proper discharge of his official duties.

i. Private employment or services. In the event such a conflict arises with respect to a member, (s)he shall notify the Chairman of the Agency of same and withdraw from participation in any Agency process with respect thereto.

j. Future employment. For a period of one (1) year after the termination of service or employment with the Agency, no former officer, employee or member, on his or her own behalf, or as an employee, agent or representative of another may apply to or appear before or conduct business with respect to the Agency in any matter concerning which he or she personally rendered substantial services and made policy decisions during the period of his or her term of office, service or employment by the Agency. Said one (1) year prohibition may be waived by the members for good cause upon written application for such officer, employee or member. At the expiration of the one (1) year period and thereafter, the former officer, employee or member shall make prior disclosure in writing to the members of the nature and extent of his/her Agency involvement with matters (s)he now seeks to address with the Agency.

Such disclosure must be made whether or not such offer and negotiations are verbal or written and whether or not the offer is accepted.

l. Sale of Goods or Services. No officer or employee or member of the Agency employed on a full-time basis nor any firm or association of which such Agency member, officer or employee is a member nor corporation, a substantial portion of the stock of which is owned or controlled directly or indirectly by such member, officer or employee, should sell goods or services to any person, firm, corporation or association which is licensed or whose rates are fixed by the Agency.
